"MAY MY LEGEND PROSPER AND THRIVE. I WISH IT A LONG
AND HAPPY LIFE!"***

**The Allure of Chanel* by Paul Morand, Hermann, 1996

© Man Ray Trust / ADAGP Paris 2016

Gabrielle Chanel lived her life as she alone intended. The trials of a childhood as an orphan and the successes of an accomplished businesswoman gave birth to an extraordinary character; daring, free, and ahead of her time. Faithful friendships and passionate love affairs, as well as a thirst for culture, discovery and travel helped shaped her personality. A wardrobe freed from constraints and superfluity, tweaked with masculine accents, created a visionary allure that has become timeless and yet wildly modern. Pearls and diamonds casually paired with iconic perfumes have created a signature style... That of an avant-garde woman, a pioneer whose lifestyle and multiple facets forged the values of the House she founded, and who remains an inspiration for all women.

    - ❑ TEXT CANVAS
      - ❑ Amongst many things, Trinity Dang is a self made model, entrepreneur, author, and international television host. Growing up in almost every part of the world, Trinity has embodied a deep spirit of culture, curiosity, and particularly, an extremely unique perspective. As a young adult, Trinity lived in over 6 different countries and traveled to over 100 different cities. Studying under some of the world’s most successful entrepreneurs, Trinity was integrated in building over a dozen start up companies. Online, she is a social phenomenon seen in commercials, magazines, and television series across the globe. Offline, Trinity is the co-founder of Mission Strategy: MSTRAT, a strategic consulting and production company where she consults, strategizes, recreates, and helps in building businesses from start to finish. She published Her Memoriae, a poetry, prose, and photo book sharing some of the most intimate thoughts from her personal journal, hoping to model transparency, vulnerability, and strength in courage, inspiring this younger generation everywhere. She is also the founder and CEO of The Still Project, a platform that brings global awareness to mental health and mindful living.

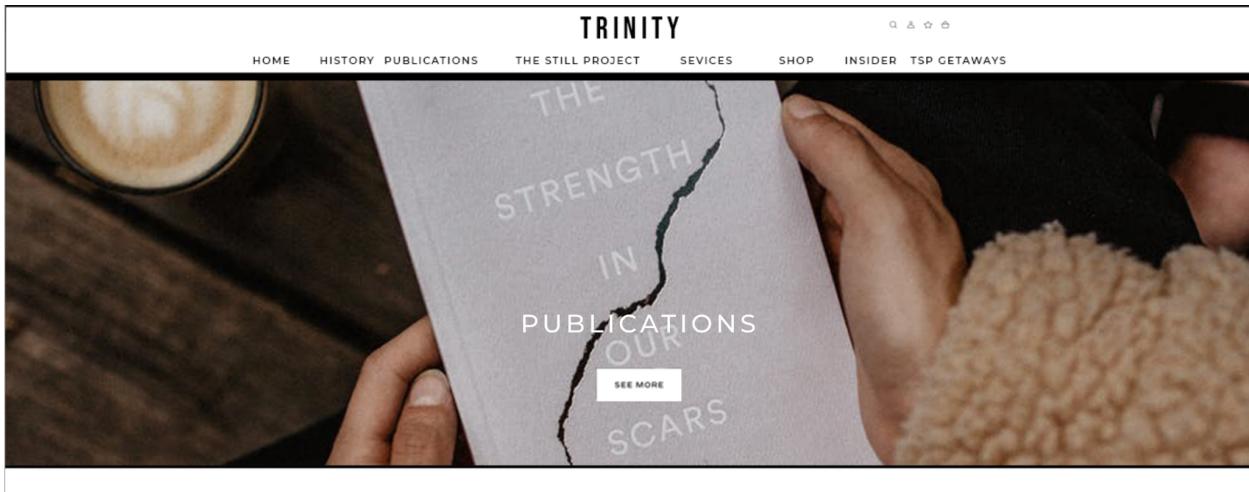

Trinity is a full time humanitarian, mental health advocate, and holistic health activist. Serving to bridge the gap between East and West -- Trinity is a voice for this generation, a beacon of love, hope, and light, fighting to break through the stigmatism surrounding mental health. Today, she aspires to continue sharing her story and investing in serving others, as well as building platforms that help support individuals along their own personal journeys.

- At Chanak, being a purposeful and human-driven employer means being intentional, meaningful and caring in inspiring our people.
- We believe it is critical for the long-term success of our business to foster an environment that reflects our values, encourages and enables inclusion and fosters collaboration and well-being.

DEVELOPMENT FOR ALL

SEE JOBS

We believe that all employees should be supported in developing their personal talents and careers. We strive to empower our people to realize their full professional and personal potential and achieve their ambitions by creating a culture that increases their capacity to learn, grow and innovate. We also believe development is fueled by an individual's sense of purpose and self-motivation and that this can stem from many sources. We offer opportunities for professional development through internal and external study assignments and challenging, fulfilling work that supports the business. We encourage a multi-experience career journey so that our people can learn from different types of work, leaders, environments and teams.
